

Michael Innocenzo

President and CEO, PECO

Profile

Innocenzo is responsible for leadership of PECO's overall performance associated with service reliability, customer satisfaction, financial management, and regulatory and external affairs.

PECO, founded in 1881, is Pennsylvania's largest electric and natural gas delivery company. Headquartered in Philadelphia, PECO delivers energy to nearly 1.7 million electric customers and more than 548,000 natural gas customers in southeastern Pennsylvania. The company's 2,900 employees are dedicated to the safe and reliable delivery of electricity and natural gas as well as enhanced energy management conservation, environmental stewardship and community assistance. PECO is a subsidiary of Exelon Corporation (Nasdaq: EXC), a Fortune 250 company and the nation's largest energy delivery company, serving more than 10 million customers through six fully regulated transmission and distribution utilities.

Professional History

Innocenzo previously served as senior vice president and chief operating officer, where he was responsible for leadership of PECO's overall performance associated with operations, safety, service reliability, customer satisfaction and financial management. Prior to this position, he served as vice president, Distribution System Operations and Advanced Grid and Meter Technology, where he was responsible for the operation of the company's electric and natural gas distribution systems as well as the design and deployment of PECO's new metering technology system. Innocenzo also served as the director of Gas Operations, Quality Services and Performance Improvement. He also served as a regional director in Chester, Delaware and Philadelphia counties, as well as a regional engineering manager for Chester and Delaware counties. Innocenzo also was the emergency services supervisor in Philadelphia and a project engineer in Philadelphia and Montgomery counties.

Civic Involvement

Innocenzo has served as Board Chair of The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Philadelphia since 2022. In 2021, he was honored as a Most Admired CEO by Philadelphia Business Journal. Innocenzo serves on the boards of the Philadelphia Police Athletic League (PAL), the Franklin Institute, the American Gas Association, and the Electric Power Research Institute. He is also a member of the Satell Institute and has advisory roles with Drexel University and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.

Education

Innocenzo holds a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Widener University and a MBA from Villanova University.